Proofreading Notice and Undertaking (for Arabic and English)

I, the undersigned..... inform the Editorial Board of “Al-Quds Open University for Administrative & Economic Research & Studies”, that I have referred my research submitted for publication entitled:

for proofreading to the Language specialists whose information appear in the table below. I hereby declare that it is free from any typographical or grammatical errors, and I abide by all the responsibilities of article 7 of the researcher’s responsibilities for proofreading contained in the Publication Ethics and Malpractice Statement of the journal, which is as follows:

Subjecting the research to proofreading (Arabic and English) by specialists after the final amendments are approved by the reviewers. Providing the journal with a proofread copy, accompanied by a duly signed proofreading notice. While the journal reserves the right to take appropriate measures in the event of major errors that are inconsistent with proofreading principles, which include:

- Suspension of the research publication procedures until the error is resolved.
- Requesting the researcher to re-check the research linguistically through another competent authority.
- Proofreading the research by a competent authority chosen by the journal and asking the researcher to pay the resulting financial fees.
- Denying the publication of the research and asking the researcher to pay the research evaluation fees.
- Addressing the relevant authorities to enforce the instructions.
